SOCIAL and PERSONAL

The skating carnival at the Horse Show Building on Saturday evening, under the direction of Miss Elia Binford and Mr. William Grigg, proved a great success.

The pleasant weather, the brilliant illumination of the building, the fine music, the numbers of society people in the boxes, and the graceful and animated figures of the skaters, made the carnival an enjoyable diversion to hundreds of people.

The debutantes and the girls returned to the city from school for Easter were noticeable among those in attendance. Members of the Young Ladies' Society of the Second Presbyterian Church, who were in charge of the refreshments, had a thriving trade in peanuts, lemonade and ice cream cones.

A number of the skaters were in carnival dress, and looked very picsular and the garse of the skaters were in carnival dress, and looked very picsular and cones.
